

4 ► Gadsden County, Fla. Elkhart Ranch is a 440-acre wildlife property 25 minutes' drive from Tallahassee. The three-bedroom lodge has pine wainscoting, a stone fireplace, a wraparound porch, and an outdoor kitchen with Viking grill and deep fryer. On the land are a creek; a 4-acre pond stocked with fish; native and exotic animals, including elk and gemsbok; shooting blinds; a barn; and a motocross track. $2,399,000 Jon Kohler, Jon Kohler & Associates, (850) 508-2999

5 ◀ Helena, Ohio This three-bedroom home is surrounded by 10.8 wooded acres. The 2003 house, built out from a well-preserved 1834 log cabin, features an original bedroom with fireplace in the cabin; a gourmet kitchen; and a great room with a loft and a wood-burning fireplace. The grounds include a swimming pool, a stream, and a 19th-century barn and outhouse; shopping is 15 minutes away, in Fremont. $699,900. Lisa Deuschle, Street/Sotheby's International Realty, (419) 308-8312

6 ► Holden, Maine Ten miles from Bangor, this 8-acre private peninsula comes with 1,100 feet of waterfront. The 1950 main cottage has knotty-pine interiors, two bedrooms and a sleeping loft, a great room with stone fireplace, and an enclosed porch. Outside are a one-bedroom guest cottage, a pond, a waterfront pavilion, a dock, and a boat launch. $560,000. Charlene Hamiwka, Legacy Properties/Sotheby's International Realty, (207) 671-0085

Steal of the week

